Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Children must be given the means necessary to grow and develop to their full potential; and,

WHEREAS, Children have the right to adequate shelter, education, sanitation, health care, clean water and nutrition; and,

WHEREAS, These needs are best met by meeting the needs of their families and communities; and,

WHEREAS, Children must be nurtured and protected without consideration of race, nationality or creed; and,

WHEREAS, Each of us has the ability and responsibility to help create an environment in which children can live fulfilled lives--in our families, our communities, our state, our country, and our world:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 1-7, 1982, as in South Dakota, and ask all citizens to reflect on the society we are building for children and to take action in some small way to improve that society so that our children may grow and flourish in this and future generations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
